during the ten days never has been exceeded at a previous encampment.

Yesterday was taken up mainly with making preparations for departing. Almost in an instant the tents were down to the ground at 7 o'clock in the morning. They were immediately rolled up and carried to Shenandoah City in wagons and packed away on trains.

Grounds are Policed.

No refuse was left behind on the camp. After the equipment was inspected by company commanders, large bonfires were lighted and the old lumber and trash was destroyed. The grounds had been thoroughly polished. The men were served coffee and sandwiches shortly after 12 o'clock, and the march to Shenandoah City was commenced.

A long line of soldiers waited in front of the armorer's tent during Tuesday night and yesterday morning. Only the Federal pay was doled out to them. They will receive the District of Columbia payments some time in the near future in Washington when they account for all the equipment.
